On Sunday, May 24, 2009, at approximately 9:40 p.m., 18 year old Dannie Farber, Jr. was shot and killed while eating dinner with his girlfriend at a restaurant on the 1900 block of Rosecrans Avenue in the City of Compton. The unknown assailant walked into the restaurant and shot Dannie four times. Dannie later died from these wounds.

Dannie was a senior at Narbonne High School and was set to graduate next month on June 19. He was a good student and a star All-City wide-receiver on the Narbonne football team and had received a football scholarship to attend college.

This young man was taken prematurely from his family, friends, and classmates. He was not given the opportunity to fulfill his potential. The person responsible for this heartless crime must be caught and tried. Sheriff's Department representatives have indicated that a reward offer would be helpful in solving this heinous murder, thus bringing some sense of closure and justice to Dannie's family.
